

Licensing Rules Trainings

Training Topics: Training offered by any organization can count toward required annual training hours, as long as the training is child care related. However, to qualify as training on Sections 11-24 of the licensing rules, the licensing rules need to at least be read as part of the training.